Employes of Famous Strike Breaker Include Some Tough Characters.

Eighteen men, some of them of the toughest types of Chicago "floaters," passed through Salt Lake Monday in a private tourist car over the Rio Grande en route to San Francisco to aid in breaking the street car strike in that city

Scarcely ten people in Salt Lake knew of the presence of the strike breakers here or that they were Farley's men. The gang was thirty-five strong when the car left Chicago, according to a tourist who left that city on the same train, and who knew of the presence of the strike breakers. They had been recruited in Chicago to a great extent. When Colorado Springs was reached but eighteen of the original party remained and another car was to be picked up at that point.

The tourist who questioned them found that about half the men knew what they were going to San Francisco for, and the rest didn't care. They were being taken across the country free of charge and given plenty to eat. Among them were a number of hard characters, well known in Chicago police circles, according to the tourist. The famous Jim Farley was not with the party, the men being in charge

This that if they wished to go in and dance, other clothes would be furnished them. Request was made to see the 'other clothes' mentioned, and the petty officer was shown a dressing room where to the work of white clothes was kept with gasoline and setting fire to it. This means of destruction should be used at night, for its value is enhanced by the pyrotechnic display which follows. A chief and sometimes prohibitive objection to this method is the fact that there are more dandelions than small boys to set lution, as sulphuric acid is likely to rust the clothes was kept and the pounds of iron sulphate and ten pounds of sulphuric acid. This may be applied from a sprayer or an ordinary sprinkling can. When a metal receptacle is used it would be well to rinse it out after using the so-

Charlie Walker, seventh grade lad, says: "Digum up wit' a knife. I know lots o' kids what ain't got nothin' to do on Saturday forenoons before the game, and they'd be glad to turn a honest penny."

"Speaking of dandelions," said Johnnie Burke, "I once knew a fellow in Montana who started out to kill his dandelions by digging them up by the roots. He started with the best and sharpest knife his wife had in the kitchen. There was no sign of the root's end when he got as far as he could go with that kind of an instrument, so he got a spade. IN ONE WEEK ALL SORES DISAPPEARED

"Our little girl, one year and a half old, was taken with eczema or that was what the doctor said it was. We called in the family doctor and he gave some tablets and said she would be all right tablets and said she would be all right in a few days. The eczema grew worse and we called in doctor No. 2. He said she was teething, as soon as the teeth were through she would be all right. But she still grew worse, Doctor No. 3 said it was eczema. By this time she was nothing but a yellow, greenish sore. Well, he said he could help her, so we let him try it about a week. One morning we discovered a little yellow pimple on one of her eyes. Of course we phoned for doctor No. 3. He came over and looked her over and said that he could not do anything more for her, that we had better take her to some eye specialist, since it over and said that he could not do anything more for her, that we had better take her to some eye specialist, since it was an ulcer. So we went to Oswego to doctor No. 4, and he said the eyesight was gone, but that he could help it. We thought we would try doctor No. 5. Well, that proved the same, only he charged $10 more than doctor No. 4. We were nearly discouraged. I saw one of the Cuticura advertisements in the paper and thought we would try the Cuticura Treatment, so I went and purchased a set of Cuticura Remedies, which cost me $1, and in three days our daughter, who had been sick about eight months, showed great improvement, and in one week all sores had disappeared. Of course it could not restore the eyesight, but if we had used Cuticura in time I am confident that it would have saved the eye.
